Rebecca Whitworth's signature treatment, the Le Sanctuaire Facial ($140), is an hour and a half of pure bliss. A combination of three elements--deep-cleansing, exfoliation and re-nourishment--the Le Sanctuaire Facial, which incorporates age-old techniques and top-of-the-line organic skin care products, is customized to your skin type and made to change with your skin health needs.

In Good Hands
A true master, esthetician Whitworth knows how to bring out your best smile. Trained at one of the top schools in the country, she's been perfecting her art for nearly nine years. Her personal, soothing style is so delightful that she has built her client base on word-of-mouth alone. Perhaps the best aspect of being treated by Whitworth is relaxing in her cozy loft space, which is decorated with Indian fabrics and an angelic motif.
